D.NO. K-12052-9/13/2020-LH-Pt (1)

Dated: 18th November 2022

Dear Sir/Madam,

As you are aware, Veterinary Council of India has to fill 15% of All India quota seats in recognized veterinary colleges through a common entrance test i.e. National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (Undergraduate) or NEET (UG) which was held on 17th July 2022. As NEET (UG) result was published on 7th September 2022, admissions at recognized veterinary colleges could not be completed by 30th September 2022.

Accordingly, in view of time required for admissions, the competent authority has allowed extension of last date of admission to 1st year B.V.Sc & A.H. in veterinary colleges till 31st January 2023 for academic year 2022-23.

All Vice Chancellors, Registrars of Veterinary Universities/ Agriculture Universities having veterinary colleges and the Director AHD of States/UTs may kindly take note of the above extension of the last date for admission to B.V.Sc & A.H. course at veterinary colleges in the country.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Upamanyu Basu.
