Background

The Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry and Dairying Government of India intends to establish Livestock Livelihood Business Incubator (LLBI) centre at Central Sheep Breeding Farm Hisar, Haryana 125001 (Host). LLBI will consist of demonstration units of Animal Husbandry and Farm activities like Dairy, Poultry, Sheep and Goats, Silage, Moringa, fodder demo plots etc. LLBI will organize skill development training programs to farmers, un-employed youth, incubates & start-up entrepreneurs to promote scientific animal husbandry practices and to create opportunities for self-employment.

LLBI will be in a revenue sharing model; outsourcing the jobs by appointing agencies / partners (Aggregator) .The project will be on a contractual basis initially for a period of five years which will be extendable subject to conditions specified.

Objectives of LLBI

1. To arrange hands on training and skill development in animal and farm activities (LIFS model) to farmers / incubates / new entrepreneurs to achieve self-sufficiency.
2. To impart training in farming activities and various operations like silage preparation, Azolla and Moringa cultivation, nutritional management, enrichment of fodder, significance of TMR, mineral blocks, fodder blocks etc
3. To support incubators in preparing project reports, getting financial assistances and loan from banking Institutes.

Terms of Contract

1. CSBF, Hisar Haryana is the sole owner of the said land and the assets in LLBI. The Department will outsource the jobs to maintain and run the day-to-day activities in LLBI through experienced agencies / agents. The successful agency/ partner will be allowed to use the resources upon signing formal contract and MOU with the Department.
2. The contract will be initially for five years which will be extendable based on assessment of the performance of the agency in third and fifth year of the contract. Security Deposit of Rs 5.00 lakh (Rupees five lakh only) will be collected before issue of work order.

3. The minimum revenue sharing between the Department and the agency will be at 25 (Department):75 (agency). Secretary DAHD will have rights to review and revise the rate of revenue sharing on mutual consent. Further the partner will maintain the book of accounts and furnish to audit as and when called for.
4. An appropriate monitoring mechanism will be decided and placed by the Department for monitoring of expenditure, sale proceeds, revenue earning, revenue sharing etc and same will be incorporated in the MOU.
5. During the first year of the project CSBF will provide the requisite feed & fodder for feeding of livestock in LLBI. However other expenditure will be at the responsibility and cost of the agency till the end of contract period. The agency will arrange and pay for machineries, equipment, manpower, water, electricity, foundation seeds, fertilizer, irrigation system, feed & fodder etc (feed & fodder from second year onwards). The agency will develop training facilities and thereon will bear all training expenses and payment of stipend at the rate of Rs 5000/- (Rupees five thousand only) per trainees for minimum 15 days training period.
6. The agency / aggregator will have rights to sell the products out of LLBI like animals (ensuring to retention of foundation stock or equivalent) , milk, wool, eggs etc to farmers, animal breeders, cattle farms and in open market at- cost to recoup his investment. However, a duly constituted committee of an appropriate level will ascertain the reasonableness of cost of production, rate for sale of items etc in each occasion.
7. The aggregator will transfer all the physical assets along with resident animals to the host at the end of contract period with no obligations. In the event of disputes if any, the decisions of the Secretary DAHD will be final.
8. The performance of the aggregator / agency will be assessed periodically at appropriate level and the observations & suggestions if any, there on to be complied by the aggregator.
